

DRAFT PROGRAM

FOURTH ACFID UNIVERSITY NETWORK CONFERENCE
DEVELOPMENT FUTURES: ALTERNATIVE PATHWAYS TO END POVERTY
NOVEMBER 21 & 22 2013

HOSTED FOR THE NETWORK BY

AUSTRALIAN
COUNCIL
FOR INTERNATIONAL
DEVELOPMENT

Time	Session	Presentations
9:00	Plenary Session Broadway Dr Susan Harris Rimmer, ANU	Professor Vicki Sara, UTS Chancellor Sam Mostyn, ACFID President James Batley, Deputy Secretary, DFAT
		Professor Uma Kothari, University of Manchester
		Enrique Mendizabal, On Think Tanks
		Professor Sohail Inayatullah, Tamkang University and Macquarie University
10:30	Morning tea
11:00	Business and development Wattle	Dr Jonathan Makuqira, RMIT University Humanising Business: Rethinking the Role of Private Sector in Poverty Reduction
		Anna Gero, Institute for Sustainable Futures, UTS Incompatible philosophies or complementary roles? Civil society + business engagement in the WASH sector
		Dr Kerri Elgar, ANU Making business inclusive: are enterprise challenge funds useful tools?
		Dr Maria Nindita Radyati, Center for Entrepreneurship, Change and Third Sector, Social mapping and stakeholder diffusion as an integral basis for business development in the oil and gas industry in Indonesia
	Development and Resilience in a finite planet Thomas	Dr Helen M Hill, Victoria University Putting Food at the Centre of the Development Problematique: A case study from Timor-Leste
		Dr Kate Barclay, University of Technology, Sydney Integrating knowledge in development: social-biological-economic, and local-national-global
		Dr Amanda Cahill, Centre for Social Change Embracing the Informal Economy: A New Approach to Sustaining Livelihoods in Timor-Leste
		Dr Dana Cordell, Institute of Sustainable Futures Phosphorus scarcity: future pathways to reduce food system vulnerability to a new global threat
	Rethinking roles of international agencies Broadway	Patrick Kilby, ANU Looking back looking forward: The Challenges for ACFID in its second fifty years
		Rebecca Barber, Save the Children Australia Learning from Humanitarian Response in SE Asia: Shifting Roles of National, Regional and Intl Actors
		Assoc Prof Chris Roche, La Trobe University Is the Golden Age of International NGOs over?
		Paul Nichols, DFAT Development Risk and Development Return
Workshop Jones	Andrew Rogerson, ODI Development Progress Delivering the post-2015 Development Agenda
Workshop Harris	Joanne Crawford Introducing Individual Deprivation Measure: improving multidimensional poverty measurement to support gender equity + social justice
Sustainable impact through international agricultural research collaboration Short Course	Prof Catherine Wangari Muthuri, World Agroforestry Centre Enhancing food security and livelihoods through agroforestry practices: Key lessons from the trees for food security project in Ethiopia and Rwanda
	Dr Abdou Tenkouano, AVRDC World Vegetable Center Bridging Vegetable Research and Practice to Overcome Malnutrition and Poverty in sub-Saharan Africa
	Dr Bill Bellotti, University of Western Sydney An undisciplined approach to research for rural development
Workshop Fourth Floor 1	Mark Webster, ADRA Pathways to Development through Local Faith Communities
12:30	Lunch
13:30	Workshop Harris	Dr Mike Toole, Burnet Institute Reconnecting food and nutrition security
	Workshop Fourth Floor 1	ACFID Education Sector Working Group Partnerships for Education

13:30	New actors, movements and discourses Thomas	Dr James Goodman, UTS Responding to Global Crises: from 'Development' to Global Justice
		Tim Budge, Tribal Strategies Occupy Development! Social Movements and Future Directions of Development
		Assoc Prof Nicola Piper, University of Sydney More than Remittances: Resisting the Dominant Discourse and Policy Prescriptions of the Current Migration-Development Nexus Debate
		Dr Susan Harris Rimmer ANU Does the G20 offer a pathway to end poverty?
	Directions in accountability Wattle	Keren Winterford, Institute for Sustainable Futures A positive notion of power for citizen voice and state accountability
		Prof Gwynnyth Llewellyn, Centre for Disability Research and Policy People with disabilities as citizens, rights and accountability
		Susan O'Leary, Monash University Giving voice to development beneficiaries: the role of downward accountability
		Tahira Jabeen, University of the Punjab Citizen, Rights and Accountability: a case for children (Pakistan)
	Effective development research Broadway	Dr Thomas Davis, Office of Development Effectiveness, DFAT Australian aid program Use of Research
		Assoc Prof Juliet Willetts, Institute for Sustainable Futures, UTS Research paradigms for poverty alleviation and development: a balancing act of different knowledges, ethics, rigour and relevance
		Dr Cathy Vaughan, University of Melbourne Doing Action Research: perspectives on rationale, rhetoric, reality and results
		Casey McCowan, ActionAid Australia Complexity, chaos, compassion partnerships making justice work for women
	Workshop Jones Room	Deborah Rhodes, Leadership Strategies A new approach to achieving shared + relevant developmental change
	Workshop Short Course	Pete Silvester, Morris & Silvester Yangon Re-configuring economic development approaches: How Myanmar can/will reshape development futures
15:00	Afternoon tea
15:30	Exploring measurements in poverty, inequality + citizenship Wattle	Dr Jane Palmer, UTS Past remarkable: storytelling as qualitative method in changing the future
		Noor Farida Fleming, RMIT Measuring Active Citizenship
		Jacqueline Kauli, QUT Theatre in Conversations: Iterative + reflective approach to development in Rural PNG
		Nayana Godamunne Reimagining Urban Development
	Inclusive approaches in gender and disability Thomas	Lanie Stockman, Save the Children Australia The voices of Pacific children with disabilities: Participatory research in PNG and Vanuatu
		Suharto Suharto, Griffith University Community-Based Rehabilitation: A Growing Approach to Disability Issues on Poverty and Social Exclusion
		Joanne Crawford, International Women's Development Agency Triple Jeopardy: Practice Implications for addressing gender-based violence for women with disabilities
		Dr Bina Fernandez, University of Melbourne Collective livelihood initiatives for rural poor women
	Rethinking roles of academia and universities Broadway	Dr Keith Horton, University of Wollongong Academics Stand Against Poverty: Present and Future
		Anna Trahair, Australian Volunteers International Higher Ed Futures for the Globalising and Developing World
		Assoc Prof Danielle Celermajer, University of Sydney Between scholarly and political complexity: the dilemmas of effective academic engagement in the real world
	Workshop Jones	Paul Nichols, DFAT Partnerships for Sustainable Development in South Asia
	Workshop Harris	Mark McPeak, ChildFund Australia Rashomon 2013: Different Realities, Different Futures for our sector
	Workshop Short Course	Zoe Roberts, Union Aid Abroad- APHEDA Building a Future with Decent Work: A Participatory Workshop on Global Rights at Work, Climate Change and the Just Transition
Workshop Fourth Floor 1	Dr Usha Harris, Macquarie University Participatory Media Workshop

Time	Session / Room	Presentations
9:00	Plenary Session Broadway Dr Susan Harris Rimmer, ANU	Professor Dave Griggs, Monash University
		Dr Jim Woodhill, DFAT
		Dr Sarah Cook, UNRISD
10:15	Morning tea
10:45	The Future of Equity in Education Wattle	Eveline Gebhardt, Australian Council for Educational Research Learning for All: A New Global Agenda
		Dr Elizabeth Cassity, Australian Council for Educational Research Spatial Challenges
		Dr Rachel Outhred, Australian Council for Educational Research Methodological Challenges
	Addressing Exclusion Thomas	Lisa Hannigan, DFAT Rethinking graduation and social protection - a realistic aspiration?
		Ta Van Tuan, AFAP Socialisation Policy and Access of the Rural poor to Education in Vietnam
		Nguyen Tran Lam, ChildFund in Vietnam Social Exclusion and Development: The Case of Ethnic Minority Children in Vietnam
		Sarina Kilham, Institute of Sustainable Futures, UTS Biofuels: some lessons from Brazil and Timor-Leste
	Partnerships and Cross-sectoral collaboration Broadway	Alison Macintyre, WaterAid Australia A comprehensive approach to addressing undernutrition: Operationalising the integration of water, sanitation and hygiene interventions into nutrition programming
		Nguyen Anh Thinh, ADRA in Vietnam Building Partnerships for Peer Health Education in Vietnam
		Jackie Robertson, ChildFund Australia Child and youth participation and its link to development effectiveness
		Katherine West DFAT Ideas emerging from a meta-evaluation of Australian Government-funded NGOs working in Cambodia
	Workshop Jones	Dr Jim Woodhill, DFAT Incentives for Private Sector Engagement
	Workshop Harris	Prof Mark Moran, Institute for Social Science Adapting Development Practice to Indigenous Contexts
	Workshop Short Course	Sohail Inayatullah Macquarie University Development Futures workshop
	"Research" and "research and development" in global health Fourth Floor 1	David Anderson, Burnet Institute "Grand Challenges"? Translating Australia's R&D capacity into sustainable solutions for global health
		Nick Chapman, Policy Cures Getting to impact – funding product development in an Australian global health R&D strategy
	12:00	Lunch
	13:00	Harnessing tech for development Wattle	Kaj Lofgren, Impact by Design Technology for Social Change: how intentional online platforms can create tangible offline change
			Irene Guijt ANU Stories, Statistics and Systemic Change: Lessons from using SenseMaker in Africa, Asia and the Pacific
			Edward Langham, Institute for Sustainable Futures, UTS Decentralised Energy: Reshaping the Delivery of Development Assistance?
Workshop Jones	Amanda Lenhardt, ODI Development Progress The measurement debate

Time	Session / Room	Presentations
13:00 Contd	A new era for Australian aid? Fourth Floor 1	Joanne Spratt, ANU Irene Guijt, Learning by Design & ANU Robin Davies, Development Policy Centre
	Working with women + girls: new pathways + opportunities Thomas	Nicole Rodger, Plan International Australia Gender in Early Childhood Care and Development – Challenges and Opportunities for Gender Responsive and Gender Transformative ECCD programming Nang Phyu Phyu Lin, CARE International in Myanmar Women and Leadership in Myanmar Dr Joel Negin, University of Sydney The mother-in-law in global development: obstacle or opportunity
	Partnerships in Community Development Broadway	Dr Janet Hunt, ANU Indigenous Futures on Country in Rural NSW Sophia Close, ANU How can development transform conflict in Indigenous communities? Ashok Kumar, Professional Assistance for Development Action Facilitating women farmers for lasting development outcomes on the East India Plateau
	Workshop Harris Room	ACFID and UTS Futures ideas for fast paced media in a complex world
	Workshop Short Course	Jackie Robertson, ChildFund Australia Re-framing partnerships to re-frame the future
	14:15	Break
	14:30	Partnerships in practice- what does it mean to partner? Wattle	WASH Reference Group The sum is more than the parts: impacts of the Australian Water, Sanitation and Hygiene Katie Greenwood, Oxfam Australia Partnership as a New Way of Working in the Solomon Islands: SINPA Case Study Stephen Wearing, Volunteers in Community Engagement (VOICE) Creative Partnerships - Investment in volunteering as a strategic platform to enhance learning and improve development practice Jan Noorlander, CARE International in Cambodia Influencing policy through partnership: Scaling up bilingual education in Cambodia
Preparing the next generation Thomas		Brendan James Rigby, University of Melbourne Preparing and supporting the next generation of development practitioners through peer coaching Jess Boyden, Oxfam Australia Wide awake: How conscious creatives can build a better future Suzanne Arnold, University of Sydney Is Training Adequate to Provide the Capacity to Implement the Human Rights Based Approach now and in the future? Anna Donaldson, Oxfam-Monash Partnership A new take on 'youth empowerment': The Oxfam-Monash Innovators approach
Workshop Broadway		Gaia Grant, Tirian International Shaping development futures: exploring directions for the ACFID University Network
Workshop Jones		Gerard McCarthy Technology for citizen engagement and development
Workshop Harris		Arthi Patel, DFAT Community Driven Development: does it deliver on poverty, on inclusion, on accountability?
Workshop Short Course		Anna Gero, Institute for Sustainable Futures How do we know what good climate change adaptation looks like?
15:45		Afternoon tea
16:15	Closing Plenary	Marc Purcell, Executive Director, ACFID
		Prof Stuart White, Director, Institute of Sustainable Futures, UTS	