IMPACT NETWORK

A collaboration between the Australian Council for International Development and Australian Universities

Fostering partnerships in research for development

Monday
30 October 2017
2-5pm

Terrace Room, Level 6
Sir Llew Edwards Building
The University of Queensland

The Research for Development Impact Network and the University of Queensland invite you to join a networking forum for researchers and practitioners of international development.

Showcasing successful cross-sector partnership examples in practice, you will learn from sector leaders and peers as they present from their own experiences.

Join us for this unique opportunity to share experiences and explore opportunities for collaboration with peers from universities and international development NGOs across Brisbane.

Afternoon tea will be provided.
