

Pedagogy in Practice: how we teach in Development Studies

22–24 June Murdoch University
Program

Friday 22 June

7:45-8:30 Registration

8:30-8:50 Welcome to Country

8:50-9:00 Introduction

9:00-9:30 Keynote Address: Sisonke Msimang - More than words: the politics and practice of storytelling

9:30-10:00 Q&A Chaired by Rochelle Spencer

10:00-10:20 Marc Purcell, CEO ACFID - Sector Update and Trends

10:20-10:30 Q&A Chaired by Jane Hutchison

10:30-11:00 Morning Tea

11:00 – 12:45 Morning Panels

11:00-11:30 Development Practitioners (NGOs and Consultants) - Key industry trends

11:30-12:00 Q&A Chaired by Jane Hutchison

12:00-12:30 Postgraduate Development Studies Students Speak (UWA and Murdoch)

12:30-12:45 Q&A Chaired by Natalia Saeed

12:45-1:45 Lunch

1:45–2:30 Guest Papers – Reflexive practice

1:45-2:00 Bilous and Lloyd (Macquarie) - Teaching and assessing creative forms of reflective practice for experiential and practice-based learning

2:00-2:15 Bina Fernandez (Melbourne) - Strategies for encouraging reflexive practice amongst development studies students

2:15-2:30 Q&A

Hill Lecture Theatre

Hill Lecture Theatre

ECL Level 2 Room 2.031

2:30-3:00 Afternoon Tea

3:00-5:00 Afternoon Roundtables

ECL Level 2 Room 2.031

3:00-4:00 Roundtable Discussion – Responding to the issues raised in the panels

4:00-5:00 Roundtable Discussion – Antipodean Development Studies Association and FOR code

5:00 Session Close

6:30 Meet in Fremantle for evening drinks and meal*

Saturday 23 June

8:40-9:00 Registration

9:00-10:45 Guest papers – Place-based and decolonisation

ECL Level 2 Room 2.031

9:00-9:15 Petra Tschakert and Gillian Walsh (UWA) - Teaching place-based development: being in place

9:15-9:30 Lauren Tynan (UNSW) - Re-Placing the Antipodean: de-colonising development studies

9:30-9:45 Yirga Woldeyes (Curtin) - Teaching from the darker side of development: a de-colonial approach

9:45-10:00 Paul Hodge and Bernard Kelly Edwards (Newcastle) - Learning with/on/as place: reflections from 3rd year UG development studies course

10:00-10:15 Cameron Tero and David Palmer (Murdoch) - Maps in development education and practice: open spaces and multiple trajectories

10.15-10:45 Q&A

10:45-11:15 Morning Tea

11:15-12:45 Guest papers – International placements

ECL Level 2 Room 2.031

11.15-11:30 Kearnin Sims (JCU) - To hell and back again: From good intentions to good outcomes

11:30-11:45 Susanne Schmeidl (UNSW) - What development studies can learn from social work in shaping international student internship experiences

11:45-12:00 Matthew Satchwell (ACICIS) - Experiential and practice-based learning: the ACICIS Study Indonesia experience

12:00-12:30 Q&A

12:30-1:30 Lunch

1:30-3:00 Guest papers – Ethics/approaches

ECL Level 2 Room 2.031

- 1:30-1:45 Vicki-Ann Ware and Max Kelly (Deakin) - Strength in diversity and complexity: development studies at Deakin University
1:45-2:00 Chris Roche, Linda Kelly, Chris Adams (La Trobe) - Teaching practices in relation to experiential and practice-based learning
2:00-2:15 Helen Leslie (Massey) - Working towards values-based, ethically-informed and practice-oriented pedagogy in development studies: what role can competencies play?
2.15-2:45 Q&A

2:45-3:30 Afternoon Tea

3:30-4:50 Afternoon Roundtable

ECL Level 2 Room 2.031

- 3:30-4:30 Roundtable Discussion – Creating communities of teaching practice
4:30-4:50 Identifying key themes and host for next symposium in 2019

4:50-5:00 Symposium Close

- 5:15-6:05 Documentary – The Disappearance of Sombath Somphone (winner best documentary Buddha International Film Festival)

- 6:45 Symposium Dinner Little Creatures Brewery in Fremantle

Sunday 24 June

- 11:00-2:00 Third Space Yarning Event at Replants*

NB: These activities are optional networking opportunities, and will be at the expense of participants.*