RESEARCH FOR DEVELOPMENT
IMPACT NETWORK

A collaboration between the Australian Council for International Development and Australian Universities

Wednesday
10 October 2018
2-5pm

Global Change Institute
The University of Queensland

The Research for Development Impact Network and the University of Queensland invite you to join a networking forum for researchers and practitioners of international development.

Harnessing innovation, accessing financing opportunities and increasing appetite for risk are only a few of the many reasons why the private sector is identified as a crucial collaborator for development.

Join us for this unique opportunity to learn, share experiences and explore opportunities for collaboration with peers.

Featuring insights from an expert panel:

- Meredith Hickman, Head of Strategy, WaterAid
- Ass. Prof. Damian Hine, University of Queensland Business School
- Mel Dunn, VP, International Development AECOM
- Scott Roberts, VP, Australia Papua New Guinea Business Council
- Dr Greta Nabbs-Keller – UQ Centre for Policy Futures and UQ International Development

Afternoon tea will be provided.
